

Our Approach

We support the educators who train and present, who share their passions and expertise.

We support the school that provides the space, staff, and infrastructure for a successful conference.

We support all attendees with coffee, transportation, entertainment, and special events.

We support the ADI World Language community because we believe in it.

